Due to space restraints, artwork should be no larger than 24"x36" for 2D pieces and no larger than 2'x3'x3', and no more than 100lbs for 3D pieces.

If a piece is larger than these perimeters, please contact Isabella Brezenski to see if we can accommodate said piece at isabella@thejoelfund.org or at 919.200.0886.

2D artwork should be wired or framed and be ready for hanging.

Title of artwork required.

Artist Statement required with submission (more details below).

SUBMITTING LOCALLY

If you are local to the Triangle or within driving distance and wish to submit artwork in person, you can do so by setting an appointment with Isabella Brezenski, at isabella@thejoelfund.org.

You will meet at the Joel Fund Art Studio, 822 S. White Street, Suite 106, Wake Forest, NC, 27587.

SUBMITTING BY MAIL

If mailing artwork, please send it to The Joel Fund at 822 S White St, Wake Forest, NC 27587.

A self-addressed shipping label must be included in order to be able to return the artwork. The same packaging used to send the artwork will be used to send the artwork back to the artist.

ARTIST STATEMENT

Please include the following information in your artist statement:

How long did you serve in the military?

How has art helped you after your time in the military?

How does your chosen art medium help you express yourself creatively?

How long have you been practicing art?

What inspired you to create this/these piece(s) of art?
